Because of media information and the popularity of the Internet, many first time users and seniors are becoming more interested in computers. The demand for senior computer instruction is basically the result of people retiring before computer use in the workplace became common or retiring from jobs where computer use was not emphasized. A different approach is presented in this book revealing hidden programs and utilities that every first time user would want to know, and unlocking hidden codes that first time users can use to maintain and fix any and all problems that may come
